Equity Showcase Theatre

Kevin McCormick is the Director of the Professional Development Program of Equity Showcase Theatre, and works regularly there as an acting instructor for such workshops as scene study, audition technique, and an introduction to the art of acting. Mr. McCormick also conducts an Actors Forum. Equity Showcase Theatre is one of Canada's oldest and most established non-profit organizations dedicated to the professional development of Canadian actors, and was established in 1960. Gordon Pinsent is the Honorary Chairman for EST. Go to www.equityshowcase.ca for more information.

"Having freedom of expression is one of the best feelings in the world, but fully allowing yourself to go there is the challenge. For the first time I overcame that. I was able to truly immerse myself in the work without any self-judgment. Kevin brought out the passion in people because he has just as much passion to teach."
